Terms and Conditions

1. Acceptance onto the CELTA course is not automatic. You must complete the pre course tasks and interview to a satisfactory standard. Admission on to the course is entirely at the discretion of Bell's course tutors. You are strongly urged to read the information about CELTA on our website and the Cambridge English website before applying. You will need to clear your diary for the duration of the course, as it is highly intensive.
2. Prior to acceptance, applicants for this scheme must sign a teaching contract for summer 2024, agreeing to work at one of Summer Young Learner Centres – either Bell St Albans, The Leys (Cambridge), Tudor Hall (Oxfordshire) or Badminton (Bristol).
3. The summer teaching contract will be for between 4 and 6 weeks and is subject to successful completion of the CELTA course with a provisional grade of C (Pass) or above. You will be paid at our full, competitive, advertised rates for newly qualified teachers, plus statutory holiday pay.
4. If you choose not to complete the CELTA course for any reason (including personal or family circumstances) after signing up, you will not receive the reimbursement. However, in exceptional circumstances, we may, at our discretion, offer you the opportunity to take the course at a later date.
5. If you do not pass your CELTA course, the fees will not be reimbursed. Please note that candidates are externally assessed by Cambridge Assessment, and attendance on the course does not guarantee that you will pass.
6. If you do not complete your teaching contract for any reason (including personal or family circumstances), you will not receive the reimbursement of course fees.
